

IS WESTCHESTER WINNING THE FAIR HOUSING BATTLE
WHILE LOSING FEDERAL FUNDING ?

Saturday, October 24th, 1pm

CSEA Local 860

595 W. Hartsdale Avenue, White Plains NY, 10607

The Past, Present and Future of Community Planning For Fair & Affordable Housing in Westchester

A WESPAC Foundation / CSEA Roundtable/ Planners Network Forum

Affordable Housing - Geoffrey D. Smith, Tenant Association Advocate

Fair Housing - Laura Morris, Westchester Residential Opportunities Inc.

Work Force Housing - Alec Roberts, Developer & ED Community Housing Innovations

Neighborhood Preservation - Phyllis Maguire, Human Development Services of Westchester.

Community Activism - Tye Wilcox, Public Housing Resident.

Westchester County, commonly thought of as a haven of affluence and as New York's model suburb, has become increasingly stratified economically as the urban/suburban divide intensifies. Meanwhile exclusionary zoning and an increasing dearth of affordable housing perpetuates income and wealth divides.